CAN I AFFORD NOT TO BE- LONG TO THE RED CROSS? ASK YOURSELF THIS QUESTION

"Can I afford not to do my part in showing our Government, our army, our navy and our Allies, that every person in the United States is supporting them?"

It is idle to ask your eyes to what is before us.

Our boys will soon be in the midst of this war. Shall we not equip and support them?

Those who can't fight must pay. We must dedicate our energies and our resources.

Have you read "Mr. Britling Sees It Through"? If you will recall that Mr. Britling did not realize there was a war until his son Hugh was killed. That's our trouble. We don't realize this war. We think of it as something remote. Don't wait until your boy is killed to join the Red Cross.

RED CROSS MEETINGS

The class on "First Aid to the Injured" will meet at Dr. Kinnaird's office Thursday night at 7.

All who are interested in making surgical supplies for the Red Cross meet at the Woman's Club room Friday at 2 P. M.

"What constitutes a day's work?" We figure it out that it depends altogether on your occupation. If you lay brick, eight hours; if you keep house, sixteen hours; if you preach the gospel, two hours; if you are a porter in a sleeping car, twenty hours; if you serve the government, one hour; and if you are a newspaper man, twenty-four hours.

LET'S TRY IT

Garrard County will have an opportunity to compete in the contest to be held at the State Fair this year, in which many prizes will be given for the best agricultural exhibits made by any county. Not alone does this offer an opportunity to get a cash prize, but it offers great advertising possibilities for the selling of real estate and the competition promises to be vigorous—as well as the most interesting feature at the Fair. You farmers who pride in the production of first class produce should get busy and make an effort to have Garrard county represented in this contest. Really we should have an exhibit that would carry off a prize. It is well worth the effort. Try it.

BACON ECONOMY.

As we told you most Bacons contain an excess of salt. They require to be freshened before being cooked.

These Bacons cost less per pound than ours, but when you figure on this salt at about 15c a pound, there is a different story to tell.

The beauty of our Bacon is that there is not the least bit of waste about it.

In a pound of it there are 16 ounces that can be eaten. We would be glad to have you try the brand we handle.

We think you would agree with us that it is a superior article.

Currey's

FLAG DAY.

Today, June 14, is the 100th anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the flag of our country. It is a national anniversary and is becoming more generally observed each year. This year it will doubly be so on account of the world wide war into which our country has been forced. Show your colors, fly your flag today.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING

There will be a district business meeting of the Bryantsville Sunday School next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This Meeting is held primarily to complete the organization in this district and a good attendance is asked to be present.

WAR TAX ON DOGS.

A Kentucky reader who believes that "nothing is so much a luxury as a dog" urges a war tax of $10 on each dog, for raising revenue and discouraging the keeping of dogs. He figures, and quite accurately, that less dogs would mean more sheep, and also more food for animals which better deserve upkeep. Through the increase of stocks material for much needed food and clothing would be promptly provided.

TEN MILLION REGISTER.

More than 10,000,000 young Americans enrolled for war service Tuesday and at no place in the country were any disturbances of a serious nature reported. Governors from all the States telegraphed Gen. Crowder, however, that a full registration was indicated and that splendid order prevailed. A feature of the registration was the refusal of hundreds of thousands to answer the question "Do you claim exemption?" This matter was left to the exemption boards.

JOHN S. ROBINSON DIES.

Mr. John S. Robinson, one of the principle owners of the Crab Orchard Springs hotel died suddenly at Dr. Lick's Sanatorium near Louisville last Thursday morning after an illness of only a few days. "Uncle Johnny" as he was familiarly called by his friends, will be greatly missed at the Springs and much sorrow will be felt that he is no more. He is survived by one son, William Robinson, of Memphis and one daughter, Mrs. Robert Soufley, of Pheenix, Ariz.

TAKEN CHARGE OF BANK

Mr. Charlie Thompson, who has been serving in the Garrard Bank and Trust Company, as individual book-keeper for the past year or more has resigned this position and accepted a more lucrative one as cashier of the First State Bank at Livingston, Ky. Charlie is a splendid young man and we congratulate him on his worthy promotion and feel that he will make good in his new field. Mr. J. N. Brown, of the Mercer National Bank, of Harrodsburg, succeeds Mr. Thompson and assumed his duties last Monday morning.

CONSCRIPT LOAFERS.

Many of those who were and are opposed to compulsory military service would most heartily approve conscription and the draft if it could be applied to idle boys made the means of keeping them at work. A committee has been investigating the matter reported to government authorities that there are now two million habitual idle boys of fourteen and eighteen. Anyone who has noticed the vacant-eyed, loose-lipped, slouchy, cigarette-smoking young loafers who hang around city street corners will easily believe the report.—The Youths Companion.

SWEET CLOVER.

Much interest is being manifested by the farmers of the county in Sweet Clover. Mr. Frank Holtzelaw on the Crab Orchard pike has a beautiful field of the same which is attracting much attention several carloads of farmers having gone out to see it from town. Mr. Holtzelaw sowed the clover in the spring of 1916 and at the present time it strikes one around the shoulders. Mr. F. E. Merriman, District Agent of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture pronounced this to be one of the best fields he had ever seen. Mr. Holtzelaw says Sweet Clover beats any clover or grass that he has ever tried and that he intends to get his entire farm seeded to it.

COURT HOUSE BELL

RINGS AT 9 O'CLOCK.

In accordance with a request made by Secretary McAdoo over the phone to Mr. J. Robert Conn the court house bell rang at 9 o'clock Monday night and will do so each night until including to-night, Thursday. This is to remind the people that the Liberty Bonds have not all been disposed of. It is hoped that the reminder will cause many to thus help their country at this critical time in raising money to carry on the great war that has just been begun.

LLOYD MARET

DIES SUDDENLY

Lloyd Maret, son of Mr. James Maret, of Booneville fame, died at his home at Mt. Vernon Thursday afternoon, aged 34 years. He was ill of pneumonia only 48 hours. Besides the father, Mr. Maret leaves a wife to whom he was married only a few months ago. Mr. Maret was a telegraph operator for the L. and N. for many years and was a big-hearted, clever man.—Interior Journal.

Mr. Maret was well known in Lancaster where he has often visited and we regret to learn of his passing away.

TWO LOCAL

PHYSICIANS ENLIST

Dr. W. L. Carman, of Paint Lick and Dr. Virgil Kinnaird, of this city have recently offered their services to the Reserve Medical Corp and each have passed satisfactory examinations. Dr. Carman has been ordered to report at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., today and Dr. Kinnaird, who received his commission last Thursday, has been ordered to secure his necessary uniform and to be ready to report at an early date. Garrard county is losing for time two of our most capable young physicians, yet their friends are proud of their patriotism, while they all realized that each is making a great sacrifice in giving up their lucrative practice. Their records will be watched through the entire war, by their host of friends back home and will wish them good health and good luck during their patriotic service.

LIBERTY BONDS

SUBSCRIBED FOR County Does Its Full Duty

Garrard county has done its full duty in subscribing for the Liberty Bonds. Of the two billion loan asked of the people, Garrard county's share was the large sum of $100,000.00. Mr. B. E. Hudson was appointed chairman with two cashiers of the five banks of the county as a committee to assist to raise from the people of the county the subscription for these bonds.

These gentlemen labored faithfully with our people to float the bonds but it was found at the meeting called for eight o'clock at the Citizens Bank for Tuesday morning that only $60,000.00 had been subscribed for. The chairman at this meeting told of the labor and great effort that has been made to present the importance of the matter to the people with the result realized and that it would take heroic effort to sell the remaining $40,000.00 by Thursday noon. Volunteers were asked for to aid in the big task. In response to the call, the business men of Lancaster, Paint Lick and Bryantsville closed their business houses and answered the call. The chairman asked for 100 men with automobiles to leave the public square in Lancaster on Wednesday morning at seven o'clock to be joined by others at Bryantsville and Paint Lick to cover the entire county. The response was generous. More than 100 responded who had already bought a Liberty Bond. At a meeting at the Citizens Bank it was found that the full quota of the county had been taken and the county had done its duty.

We wish that we had the space to give the names of all the gentlemen who gave their time and such effective work in bringing to the peoples attention their duty in taking these bonds.

We would like also to give the names and amounts subscribed for by those patriotic citizens who answered the first of the nations important calls. Men in ordinary circumstances freely "did their bit" and worked for the success of the loan in the county. Women as well as men, and several of our patriotic colored citizens answered with liberal subscriptions. Some of these colored people took as high as $400.00 in bonds.

This is a fine evidence of the patriotic spirit of our people and we are indeed proud of the sentiment manifested through the county in making this the first loan to our country for the war. Every man and every woman in this county is a soldier and they show that they are going to do their part to win the war and are ready to do it now.

"And for your country, boy, and for that flag, never dream a dream but of serving her as she bids you, though the service carry you through a thousand hells. No matter what happens to you, never let a night pass but you pray God to bless that flag. Remember, boy, that behind all these men that you have to do with, behind officers and government, and people even, there is the Country Herself, your Country, and that you belong to Her as you belong to your own mother. Stand by Her, boy, as you would stand by your mother if those devils there had got hold of her today"—Philip Nolan, the "Man Without a Country," who "loved his country as no other man has loved her."

$10,000 STAKE
WILL BE HORSE SHOW FEATURE AT KENTUCKY STATE FAIR.

"World's Championship" For Five Gaited Horses

As the result of a suggestion from Jumps Cauthorn, of the Breeder and Sportsman, San Francisco, Cal., there will be a $10,000 world's championship for five-gaited saddle horses at the next State Fair should various breeders and horse owners subscribe $5,000 to the stakes. The State Fair Association will match this amount, will charge no entrance fee and deduct nothing from money winners, and will give free stalls and bedding to the horses actually competing and pay the hotel bills of those persons actually competing in the event.

Mr. Cauthorn is co-operating with Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen and $1,100 already has been guaranteed. Commissioner Cohen is writing to his friends and horsemen all over the country and the remainder of the amount seems assured.

Three judges will make the awards in this contest. One will come from the Kentucky State Board of Agriculture, one from the California State Board of Agriculture and the third from the Missouri State Board of Agriculture. It is believed that the Saddle Breeders' Association will donate $1,000 toward the stakes.

It is the intention of both Mr. Cauthorn and Commissioner Cohen to divide this stake into four shows of $2,500 each as follows:

Stallions, any age; mare, any age; gelding, any age; dividing the money into 60, 25 and 15 per cent, and permitting only money winners in the three sex classes to compete in the final event which will be for the championship of the world.

"Kentucky horsemen and lovers of fine horses, especially those who would compete in this event, are expected to write me guaranteeing amounts sufficient to make up the $5,000," said Mr. Cohen.

"For any exhibitor entering under the usual terms of 5 per cent, and it is now up to the horsemen. If they are willing to put up half the money the State Board of Agriculture is willing to put the other half, and bring to the coming Kentucky State Fair the greatest saddle horse event ever presented."

HOW ONE LIVES AT KAVANAUGH.

At this time when every one is stirred with stories of military life, it will be interesting to know that at Kavanaugh Camp a bugle call announces rising time, meal, recreation, all meeting, in fact everything. Then besides there will be a class in First Aid work, where any who desire may be instructed by a competent doctor in the essentials of rendering service to the wounded soldiers. Dr. Ethel Polk will have charge of this class. Dr. Polk is just back from China, where she has had a large practice and has done a great work. Kavanaugh is a training camp for life, where one is drilled by competent officers of experience in life, "how to live."

SOY BEANS.

In Demand Here And Much Sown For Foodstuff.

The soy bean already has reached a place of high economic importance in America and Europe as a foodstuff. The seed of the soy bean, unlike that of the cowpea, rarely is attacked by the weevil or other grain insects. Even where the oil is extracted the resultant meal is a very desirable food. During the present season the demand for seed by food manufacturers has resulted in greatly increased prices. In view of the large demand, production in excess of requirements is very improbable and this season's crop undoubtedly will command profitable prices. The soy bean also is a soil improver and the straw is valuable for feeding purposes.

AFTER EIGHT YEARS

Lancaster Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Lancaster story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Mrs. J. W. Humphrey, Danville St., Lancaster, says: "I suffered with my back and could not sleep well at night on account of the terrible aching. My back was so painful and weak that I could not get up or do any housework at all. I was told of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box. They gave me great relief from the first." (Statement given March 20, 1908).

STILL PRAISES DOAN'S

On November 18, 1916 Mrs. Humphrey said: "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are the best kidney medicine I ever used. I have had little kidney trouble in the past several years, but when I have needed a kidney medicine, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and I have been relieved." 50c at all dealers. He urged very diligently that everybody do something for his country, not wait for the other fellow do. Speeches made by Judge Charles A. Hardin and W. B. Mansford, were enjoyed.

Brazelton has recently been pastor of the Christian church at Mayfield, and comes to this city with high recommendations. This church has been without a pastor since Rev. D. M. Walker left here some months ago for Shelbyville. Mr. Brazelton has a family of a wife and son.

A. T. Traylor died very suddenly at his home in the Duddar Mill section Thursday afternoon. Although he had been in poor health for some time his death was not expected at this time. Mr. Traylor was in town Saturday and seemed to feel better than he had for some time. He had been a sufferer of heart disease for years which brought about his unexpected death. He was about 66 years old and had spent the greater portion of his life in this county, where he made friends of every one he met. Deceased is survived by his wife, who was Miss Eliza Palmer and a son, Mr. Jesse Traylor of Corbin. Mr. Traylor will also be greatly missed by Harry West, who has always lived with him. The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. G. Livingston and interment in the Goshen cemetery Saturday.

THE HOME GARDEN.

Do not put onions where they grew last year, or the onion maggot will cause you trouble. Select a new place for them and change all the crops around. They will do better.

A cultivator with a good horse hitched to the right end of it will do more digging in half an hour than a man in a week and do it much easier. So put your garden stuff in rows.

A high bush cranberry is both an ornamental and a jelly fruit plant. Put out a few about the house.

Apple trees make good shade trees for the back yard, and if a variety like Duchess, Wealthy or even some of the crab are used they will be appreciated at fruiting time.

Just as soon as the frost is well out of the ground it will do to sow onion seed and pens. Beets, early potatoes, spinach, radishes and lettuce may be planted early too. Tender vegetables should wait until late April or May.

Profit in Sheep.

Five years of experimental work with breeding ewes at the Pennsylvania State college have shown that if a reasonable profit per ewe is to be made an average of at least one lamb per ewe (equivalent to 100 per cent lamb) should be raised. An unusual effort should be made this year by all farmers keeping sheep to save and raise all lambs dropped.

LIVE STOCK NOTES.

As the heavy spring work comes on the work teams should be fed and cared for in the most careful way.

If kept right, hogs are not apt to have much the matter with them.

The sweetest mutton ever made was from feeding barley with plenty of grass and hay.

Plan for a variety of horse feeds. Barley is an excellent grain for a horse; also peas. These, of course, should be crushed before feeding.

The wool a sheep bears will pay its way on the farm.

There is not so much call for very fat pork as there was a few years ago.

PLUM PEST CONTROL.

Spray Mixture That Proved Effective in Destroying Curculio Beetle.

Spraying with arsenate of lead with a soap spreader and sticker proved most effective in tests conducted by the Ohio experiment station to control the plum curculio, a beetle that attacks plums, cherries, apples and other fruits, causing them to fall off or to be gnarled, wormy and worthless for market.

Two to three pounds of arsenate of lead paste are mixed with 23-50 bordeaux and two pounds of soft soap and applied just after the plums or cherries have bloomed, then again in about two weeks and if necessary in the latter part of July to destroy young beetles emerging from the ground at that time. The bordeaux mixture, added to control rots, is made by dissolving two pounds of copper sulphate (blue vitriol) in hot water, adding this solution to the milk of lime obtained by slaking three pounds of quicklime and then diluting the mixture of these materials with water to make fifty gallons. Where these sprays were applied at the times indicated curculio beetles were completely checked in a single season, and so little injury occurred the next year that only one spraying after bloom was necessary.

This insect, which is generally distributed throughout the eastern United States, emerges from winter quarters and begins feeding on young fruit and leaves in April and May, much depending upon weather conditions. Eggs are laid in a hole cut in the young fruit. These punctures alone lead to deformed, unusable fruit, and the larva feeding within causes further injury. Often the largest part of the crop of fruit falls because of such attacks, and the insect afterward leaves the fruit and completes its life cycle in the ground.

RED BLOOD AMERICANISM IS COMING TO THE FRONT

Right now this Country is calling for men of stout hearts and sound bodies. It needs them to keep Old Glory triumphant and unsullied in the air.

The exigency now confronting us emphasizes, as nothing else could do, the importance of good health, both as an individual and national asset.

It gives point to the suggestion, often emanating from this office, that everybody should guard their health as a priceless possession. When you find yourself running down and not exactly keyed up to the fighting pitch, as is the case with everybody at times. You ought to come to Nature's relief and take a course of

"THE SPOILERS"

To Appear At Opera House Next Saturday Night.

Whenever Manager Romans hears of a good picture he never stops until he gets it and gives the patrons of his popular house the benefit of it. His latest picture will be "The Spoilers" picturizing that wonderful fighting scene which is the acme of realism. There will be a matinee next Saturday afternoon and another show that night.
Those who wish to see the wonderful production should attend the matinee
as the seats will probably be all taken at the evening show. William Farnum has the leading role in this wonderful fight picture and he is supported by Thomas Santachi once the leading man with Selig Company.

Farnum and Santachi who takes the leading parts were really at enmity with each other and the light in "The Spoilers" will go down in film history
as the most realistic scene ever staged because it was in fact a real battle between these two physical giants.

PROVERBS ADAPTED

FOR WAR TIME.

Cherish thy parings.
Waste not, want not.
The high cost cost of living is the whine of life.
A word to the wives is: "Efficient".
If the shoe fits; keep on wearing it.
Better no garbage can than a full one.
It's a wise father that grows his own crop.
Beauty is less than skin deep—in a potato.
Bread, scattered from the back door
is the chaff of life.
Eat to live; there is no virtue in living to eat.
When prosperity flies in at the window, garbage slips out at the door.
"He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster."
"Much food is in the tillage of the poor; but there is that which is destroyed for want of judgement."
A rounded purse cannot live in harmony with a full garbage pail.

BOONE DAY

At State Historical Society At Frankfort.

The unveiling of a bronze tablet in the Hall of Fame of the Kentucky State Historical Society as a memorial to Lieutenant Richard Caswell Saufley, who lost his life June 9th, 1916, made Boone Day one of unusual interest.
The ceremony which was a just and fitting tribute to one who gave his life
for his country, was beautiful and impressive.

Before the exercises commenced the tablet was draped in the colors. A picture of Lieutenant Saufley in his uniform hung above it and beneath was a wreath of laurel. On a table before the tablet rested the flag carried by him when he made his airplane flight over Mexico in May 1914, the first official demonstration in this country for the use of the aeroplane for scouting purposes. Beside it were the different medals won by him and presented to the Society by Mrs. Saufley.

Dr. Ganfield in a splendid address recounted the achievements and the glory of men of fame from ancient times to our own and paid a beautiful tribute to the unselfish, devoted, and patriotic work that Lieutenant Saufley gave to his country when it was so in need of efficient service.

Mrs. Morton, Regent of the State Historical Society, who has given her life to the noble work of perpetuating
the memory of the illustrious Kentuckians who have helped illumine the pages of history, read a beautiful poem from her own facile pen, entitled "Our Sky Pilot" and dedicated to Lieutenant Saufley.

Mrs. Morton who is a wonderfully gifted, vivacious, and interesting woman, adds zest and impetus to the State Historical Society.

Without this living, breathing personage this Hall of Fame would be but
"dull, cold marble".

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Commencement week is always a gala week for Lancaster and this week was no exception to the rule. The school, after a most successful year under Prof. Hopkins and his able corps of teachers, began the closing exercises
Thursday, June 7th, with an operetta, entitled "Under the Stars and Stripes"
with children from grades one to eight.
Children from each grade showed thorough and careful training. The auditorium and stage were beautifully decorated in flags and bunting and many were heard to say it was one of the most beautiful and enjoyable entertainments they had ever seen given by children. Many participating in this entertainment were the youngest children in the school and their earnest efforts and successful execution was deeply appreciated as was shown by the hearty applause given them.

Friday night was the senior play, entitled "Hicks at College". The seniors were assisted by boys from the junior and sophomore classes and all acquitted themselves with credit to themselves and Mrs. Todd, under whose supervision it was given.

Saturday was the recital given by the piano department. The program was one of exceptional beauty and charmingly chosen to show to advantage the ability of each pupil. This piano recital was given by the pupils of Mrs. May Hughes Noland who plays the compositions of great masters with wonderful interpretation and expression which was reflected in her pupils
as one after one received the praise and compliments of large audiences at her recitals both Saturday and Monday afternoons.

Sunday evening the Baccalaureate sermon was delivered to the graduating class by Rev. Horace Kingsbury of Danville. The attendance was unusually large as all knew there was a treat in store for them and no one was disappointed. Rev. Kingsbury needed no introduction to a Lancaster audience as those who had not heard him had heard of him and we congratulate Danville upon having such a profound and forceful speaker in one of their pulpits.

Tuesday evening was a recital given by the expression department who are pupils of Mrs. Robert Todd. We believe too little importance is attached to the literary features of most schools,
such is not the case with ours. Mrs.
Todd has made this department one of the most important in the school as she devotes all her time and energy to her pupils and their finished efforts of Friday and Tuesday nights shows her work has not been in vain.

Wednesday evening the address to the graduating class, seventeen in number, by Prof. A. W. Fortune of Kentucky University, was impressive and highly complimented and appreciated by all who heard him. The delivering of the diplomas to the seventeen graduates by Prof. Hopkins marked the closing of one of the most successful school years in Lancaster's history.

Prof. Hopkins has only been with us one year but it has been one of the most satisfactory and brightest in the history of the school life of our town.
Year by year our school has advanced from good to better until today it stands the pride of our city and a credit to its teachers.

HUNDREDS TELL OF EXPERIENCE

Kentuckians All Over State
Find Tania Great Help.

NEW TONIC GAINS FRIENDS

Hundreds of Kentuckians have come out publicly in praise of Tania. Men and women in every part of the state have been helped back to good health by this tonic. Here are just a few of the statements made by Blue Grass
people in regard to Tania:

CRAB ORCHARD—Thos. Turner, retired farmer: "I was troubled with my stomach. I tried two bottles of Tania. It fixed me up. It is the best tonic I know of."

GEORGETOWN—James Switzer:
"Tania has done me more good than anything I ever used. I wish you all the good luck you can have, and you can use my name in any paper
you want to."

BEVIER—Mrs. Ida Taylor, housekeeper: "Would get out of breath easily and was nervous and couldn't eat.
After taking Tania I began to get stronger, and my appetite came back.
It helped me, and I know it will help others."

CENTRAL CITY—M. S. Yokley, farmer: "Was losing flesh and would get short of breath. I read how Tania was helping others and tried it. Now my nerves are all right, and I have put on weight."

WILLIAMSBURG—Jude Winkler,
merchant: "Cramps that nothing seemed to relieve troubled me until I tried Tania. The first bottle improved me very much, and the third bottle made me feel about well."

INDIAN HEAD—W. S. Wilson: "Fifteen years is a long time to be borered with my stomach, but I have taken four bottles of Tania and feel fifty percent better already. It is a wonderful remedy."

STEPHENSBURG—C. C. Paul, blacksmith: "Following pneumonia I stayed weak. Tania toned up my nerves, brought back my appetite and relieved me in every respect."

WORTHVILLE—H. W. Prosser,
pharmacist: "Constipation bothered me, and after eating I often spat up particles of food. Tania fixed me up fine. I can recommend it highly."

GET READY FOR CHAUTAUQUA.

As a result of the public spiritedness
of the leading citizens of this town, next Wednesday will bring into the community a tented auditorium which will be the scene of a five-day chautauqua that is certain to combine rich benefits with enjoyment of high-class entertainment.

Final plans are being made for the big chautauqua program, and tickets are now being offered by the local committee. Indications point to a thoroughly enjoyable week that will be of rich benefit to the community. Buy your season ticket at once.

GREAT MASONIC CELEBRATION.

On June 23rd at Crab Orchard, there will be a celebration of the Bi Centennial of Organized Masonry in Kentucky.
The Grand Lodge by resolution, authorized this celebration and the committees appointed have been busy arranging for a barbecue and will feed 5,000 people that day. Smittie's band will be there. Good speakers, good music, good fellowship, what more is needed to make this the largest affair ever held in Kentucky; Grand ball at night. Everything free to Masons, their families and friends. Every one is going and if you stay home that day
you will be lonesome. Reduced railroad rates have been secured and everything is now ready for the celebration.

GREAT MEETING AT BUENA VISTA.

That was a great patriotic meeting held at the Buena Vista School last Friday night under the auspices of Farm Agent Rogers who had called the meeting several days before. Mr. Hog-gan Ballard, of Bryantville, acted as chairman and introduced Mr. Rogers, who made a brief talk and then introduced the speaker of the evening Mr.
Merriman, the district Farm Agent of Kentucky, who delivered a splendid Stereoicon lecture on "Science In The Uses Of The Soil". The house was crowded and much patriotism was shown. Miss Eliza Ison made an earnest talk and plea for the Red Cross and secured many members in that section.
Mr. J. E. Robinson was then called for and his plea for the Liberty Bonds met with hearty support and his remarks brought forth enthusiastic applause.

One patriotic citizen of Lancaster has taken the money that he had intended to put in an automobile and bought liberty bonds. What did you do with yours?

The Odd Fellows Lodge has subscribed $250. for liberty bonds.

Some people wish to do their bit by raising crops to be sold at high prices, but their arid cools when asked to liberly bonds to help save their country.

The time to buy a bond is now. It may be too late when it suits your convenience.

No one is worthy of his country that does not make some sacrifice for it.

If you can't go, help take care of the ones who do.

If we don't save America we will have to answer to Germany for the

Do your bit. Buy a liberty bond.

America's sweet-tooth is in danger.
According to information submitted to congress by Herbert Hoover, food administrator, the sugar supply of the United States will have been exhausted
by the middle of October, and there will not be large arrivals before the end of December.

It is now a solemn obligation upon every farmer to see that his corn is cultivated, so as to make every grain count and yield its utmost. The eyes of the whole world are turned toward the American farmer and upon him falls the responsibility of not only supplying his own country with enough to eat, but the Allied countries are depending upon him also. In view of these conditions it becomes the solemn obligation for every farmer to use the very best cultivator to make his land produce the utmost.

In a myriad ways the American people are showing that they are not asleep. The Liberty Loan campaign has enlisted the services of tens of thousands of citizens; a little later and thousands of others are to go out to solicit funds for the Red Cross. In practically every home in America, on the street cars and wherever men and women gather together the war and how to push it to victory is the absorbing topic of conversation.

WANTED: Junk of all kinds. Iron, Rags, Bones, Metal and Rubber.

Will pay 50 to 60c per hundred for Iron. $1.00 to $1.25 per hundred for Bones. 50 to 60c per hundred for Rubber. Metal and Rubber at highest market price. Why sell your JUNK to irresponsible Junk Haulers when you can get twice as much by selling and delivering to us. H. B. Northcott, Lancaster and Stanford, Ky.

Can you, who are too old to fight, stand back with your dollars and see your sons suffer and die for the country in which you live, and not willingly lend your support by giving at least $1.00 to the Red Cross? Is there among you, one with a heart so cold and a soul so hardened in mercenary efforts that can hoard your dollars to the detriment of your country? Surely men, you will awake to your great opportunity while it is not too late, and come forward and help.

Major General Pershing, who will command the American forces to be sent to the French front, arrived in London the 8th having with the members of his staff reached a British port. The expected arrival of General Pershing and his party had been kept a fairly close secret from the London public. General Pershing and the twelve officers of his senior staff are to be guests of the British government at the Savoy. The remainder of the contingent will be looked after by American societies in London.

BROWN-HERVEY

On Wednesday after-noon, May 30th, quite a surprise came to the many friends of Miss Maggie Brown when it was learned that she was married to Mr. D. A. Hervey of Paint Lick. Eld. F. M. Tindler performing the ceremony. The marriage is a culmination of a long court ship.

Miss Brown was one of Lancaster's sweetest girls being a graduate of our high school having finished in 1913.

Mr. Hervey is the senior member of the firm of Hervey and Woods at Paint Lick and is indeed fortunate in winning the hand he did.

The happy couple left at once for a short bridal trip and upon their return went to house-keeping at Mrs. Hervey's farm near Paint Lick.

THE FIFTY DOLLAR BOND.

In issuing Liberty Loan Bonds in a denomination as small as $50 the Secretary of the United States Treasury has put it in the reach of almost every American citizen to do a real and actual service to his country. Not all can fight, not all can render personal service in other ways, but those who are denied the privilege of serving their country in person have the privilege of serving her by lending their money to win her victories. But it is not patriotism alone that urges the buying of Liberty Loan Bonds. Thrift and a wise economy in investing small savings commend these Liberty Loan Bonds to small investors. They are safe, and considering their tax-free quality-free from all federal, state and local taxes (inheritance taxes excepted) and free from any war tax that may hereafter be levied, affording an absolutely net income of 3 1/2 per cent they constitute an ideal investment for savings. Nor is there any reason for waiting for a later bond issue in the expectation of a higher rate of interest being obtained, for the law provides that should such bonds be issued later, Liberty Loan Bonds may be exchanged for them at par.

ALL AROUND THE FARM

INCREASE FOOD CROPS.

War Demands and Food Shortage Should Be Met by American Farmers.

D. F. Houston, secretary of agriculture, in a recent statement said in part:

It is obvious that the greatest and most important service that is required of our agriculture under existing conditions is an enlarged production of the staple food crops. Because of the shortage of such crops practically throughout the world there is no risk in the near future of excessive production such as sometimes has resulted in unremunerative prices to producers.

This is particularly true of the cereals and of peas, beans, cowpeas, soy beans and buckwheat. In view of the world scarcity of food there is hardly a possibility that the production of these crops by the farmers of the United States can be too great this year, and there is abundant reason to expect generous price returns for all available surplus.

The most effective step that may be taken to increase the production of these crops is to enlarge the acreage devoted to them in the regions where they are grown habitually. This expansion of acreage should be to the limit permitted by available good seed, labor and equipment.

Good Seed Wheat Necessary.

The minimum quality of seed grain that should be relied upon under existing conditions is a very difficult point to decide. In general it is not wise to risk planting seed wheat showing less than 75 or 80 per cent germination nor that weighing less than fifty pounds to the bushel. If the land is prepared thoroughly and otherwise is suitable the use of spring wheat weighing as low as forty-five pounds per bushel, if it shows good germination, may be advisable where better seed is lacking.

The Usefulness of Oats and Barley.

If land intended for spring wheat cannot be put into good condition early enough for seeding, oats or barley can be substituted to good advantage in the sections where these crops are known to do well. Barley can be relied on in the proved areas of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, the Dakotas and Montana, while oats have a much wider range. The ease with which barley may be substituted directly for wheat in human food and its usefulness to replace wheat milling byproducts as food in the production of the milk supply renders its abundant production important. Barley where it succeeds yields a larger weight of feed per acre than any other small grain crop. With an abundance of oats and barley available much closer milling of wheat than at present could be practiced, if necessary, without endangering the milk supply, which constitutes so important an element in the dietary of consumers.

Buckwheat Far Late Planting.

Buckwheat may be planted later than any similar crop and often does well on old meadows or waste land that can be broken after the more exacting crops are planted. In some sections where experience has demonstrated that the cereals, except rye, cannot be relied on, buckwheat is a crop of considerable importance. The acreage could well be increased, especially in portions of New York, Pennsylvania and New England, where the crop now is grown to a considerable extent.

Expand the Corn Acreage.

Corn is the leading food and feed crop of the United States in geographic range of production, acreage and quantity of product. The vital importance of a large acreage of this crop properly cared for, therefore, is obvious. Because of the prices obtained for the last crop and the world demand for this grain its profitability to the American farmer during the approaching season is clear. Conditions now warrant the planting of the largest acreage of this crop which it is possible to handle effectively.

Although fall is the proper time for breaking sod for corn, there are many unproductive and foul meadows and indifferent pastures in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and the middle Atlantic and northeastern states that under existing conditions can be broken now to advantage and planted to corn. The resulting reduction of hay and pasture would be more than replaced by the corn stover, ensilage and grain produced.

Potatoes and Vegetables.

Seed potatoes should be conserved by planting on the best lands available for them and planning for thorough tillage and protection of the crop against disease and insect pests. Potatoes can be grown most advantageously near the centers of population in the northern states, where transportation cost may be reduced to a minimum. This crop is capable of quick and large increase of production when conditions are favorable.

The duty of the individual farmer at this time is to increase his production, particularly of food crops. If he has control of tillable land not in use or money lying idle or labor unemployed he should extend his operations so as to employ those resources to the fullest extent. This does not mean that he should rob his land, waste his capital or expend his labor fruitlessly, but that by wise planning and earnest effort he should turn out a greater quantity of food crops than ever before. He will not lose by it, and he will perform an important service in supporting his country in the task that lies before it.

"Our Sky Piolet"

By MRS. JENNIE C. MORTON.

In Memory of Lieut. Richard Caswell Sautley of the United States Navy.

He was our own "Sky Piolet," on the heavens' untraversed seas,
Finding his pathway thru its dangerous clouds and breeze;
In a brave endeavor there, to discover something new,
Where the stars but dimly beckoned, and south winds roughly blew.
So with poet's vision gifted, he guided his winged car,
In behalf of his country now, in the world's strange war.
Where argosies mayhap waited, with gifts for his fair land,
And new secrets of great power there, he might understand.

His aeroplane flew swiftly thru the strange and pathless skies,
In its strong unflagging wings he soared, and rose as eagles rise,
With undazzled eyes to heights beyond, thru turn to rests its wings
On billowy clouds beneath; such fleeting treacherous things.
So the young pilot steered aloft, no compass, line or plan,
Pausing a moment in the clouds, before he'er touched by man.
And here he grasped a secret, 'twas thought for some design,
In the meeting of the nimbus waves, when suns had ceased to shine.

He was the first pathfinder in the new Aeroplane
Above our world so far on the unknown soundless main.
O'er America he journeyed oft bird like here and there
Higher each time and higher he sailed upward in the air--
Above the sky of Mexico, he sailed out once in quest
Of knowledge for his Country at his ruler's behest;
And he won the deepest gratitude, and medals rich and rare--
And world praise for his genius, to construct, to do; and dare.

He had reached his goal at last he thought in swift and aerial car,
And homeward he would sail again, thru clouds like gates ajar,
To teach the science he had learned, far up in the skies,
Unknown to sailors on the sea, obscure to mortal eyes,
Alas! the heavens changed from smiles, to ominous fearful frown,
And the aerial car like meteor, then burst and glided down,
As if its power was shorn now by unseen hand o'er head;
And the faithful wondrous pilot, from the ruined car fell dead.

We have heard the touching story of his wondrous flight and fall,
For "God and home and Country" quick answering the call,
His ascension as an Aeronaut was then the highest known,
His skill and daring grandest, of all pilots who had flown
O'er the aerial cloud-cens, he so bright, so strong, so brave;
He sought the unknown dangers amid billows all, a-wave
To snatch the secret power from Zeppelins' ally,
Armed with butchers in their navies, shooting death-fires from on high.

We hold his memory sacred and for e'er his courage grand
And his name and valorous voyager for his native land,
His was the archetypal mind of that mysterious thrill,
That conquers by a vision, and leads worlds by its will
His bravery seems appalling; his valor was sublime,
And his story will be written in the annals of his time,
His name will be engraven with Kentucky's famous dead,
On her monument for heroes; with sacred records spread.
Such patriotism has renown, that death can never blight,
Won by a valiant martyrdom for Country and for right,
For such the man of Zion, was made of famous note
When the lord of heavens, his birthplace inscribed in his report.
Our daring brave "Sky-Piolet," of exploit rare and great,
Was born here in Kentucky, our fair beloved state,
We claim for her the honors he won mid cloud and wave,
And these symbols, and memorials, 'and the ashes of her brave."

Style in Emotion.

"Now some scientific sharp says there are styles in emotions." "I believe it. I know some women who always wear their dignity ruffled."

The first call of the flies is for 12,000 engineers and skilled men to repair the railroads of France and England; and other thousands will be needed later. Russia will probably want thousands of men to repair and build her railroads. The increase in transportation and the tax on our own roads will call for large numbers of men of the same kind.

The time is rapidly drawing to a close on the liberty bonds and it is imperative that the people of this county come forward at once and subscribe for as many of them as they can possibly take care of. The ten million dollars to be spent during the coming year by the U. S. and their Allied Governments for American products will bring to this country the greatest prosperity in its history, according to Secretary McAdoo, and the only thing that will prevent this prosperity would be the refusal of the people to support the reasonable taxation and buy these Government Bonds.
